

Press Release 22 September
ALLIED EDITIONS 10TH ANNIVERSARY

Allied Editions at Frieze London
13 – 17 October 2021

Allied Editions at No.9 Cork Street
4 – 20 November 2021

Allied Editions will celebrate their 10th Anniversary in 2021 with two special presentations. They are delighted to return to Frieze London, 13th – 17th October 2021. In addition to this, Allied Editions will exhibit, alongside Arts Council Collection, at Frieze's major new gallery space in London No.9 Cork Street from 4th - 20th November 2021.

Allied Editions is a unique artists' editions collective made up of seven of London's leading not-for-profit arts organisations: Camden Art Centre, Chisenhale Gallery, Institute of Contemporary Arts, Serpentine, South London Gallery, Studio Voltaire and Whitechapel Gallery. At Frieze London 2021, the collective is joined by guest regional partner, Brighton CCA.

To mark the decennial, Allied Editions, at No.9 Cork Street, will invite back previous regional partners Focal Point Gallery, Hepworth Wakefield and Nottingham Contemporary to join the presentation.

At Frieze London in 2021, and at No.9 Cork Street, Allied Editions will exhibit limited edition artworks by international artists, with over 100 artworks on display and for sale from £100, including new editions, launched exclusively for Frieze.

Artists include: Caroline Achaintre, Marina Abramovic, David Adjaye, Abbas Akhavan, Phyllida Barlow, James Barnor, Alvaro Barrington, Kerstin Bratsch, Chila Kumari Singh Burman, Sol Calero, Phoebe Collings-James, Céline Condorelli, Counterspace, Sophie Cundale and Penny Goring, Richard Deacon, Shannon Edner, Simone Fattal, Fischli/Weiss, Jake Grewal, Katharina Grosse, Sunil Gupta, Anthea Hamilton, Richard Hawkins, Heart n Soul, Celia Hempton, Kai Isaiah-Jamal, Sanya Kantarovsky, Anish Kapoor, Rita Keegan, Morag Keil, Serena Korda, Beca Lipscombe, France-Lise McGurn, Lisa Milroy, Katy Moran, Sarah Morris, Thao Nguyen Phan, Chris Ofili, Silke Otto-Knapp, Yoko Ono, Christodoulos Panayiotou, Nicolas Party, Amalia Pica, Walter Price, Sam Pulitzer, Christina Quarles, Giles Round, Eve Stainton, Jenna Sutela, Philip Taaffe, Herve Telemaque, Caragh Thuring, Wolfgang Tillmans, Fred Tomaselli, Dana Schutz, Linder Sterling, Ann Veronica Janssens, Danh Vo, Ai Weiwei, Rachel Whiteread, Jonas Wood and Abbas Zahedi.

Editions are specially commissioned and donated by the artists to support the galleries' programmes.

Hans Ulrich Obrist, Artistic Director, and Bettina Korek, Chief Executive, Serpentine, say:

‘Serpentine is honoured to again partner with Frieze Art Fair to continue our collaboration with Allied Editions, and to join other outstanding arts organisations around the UK in celebrating Allied Editions' tenth anniversary this year. Throughout Serpentine's own fifty-year history, editions have long been a meaningful avenue for collaboration with artists. Allied Editions' work to make owning limited-edition artworks accessible for a broader range of collectors does much to further a culture of everyday philanthropy—truly important work indeed.’

Ben Roberts, Director, Brighton CCA, says:

‘I'm delighted that Brighton CCA's Atelier has been selected to join Allied Editions for their tenth anniversary at Frieze London. This project is a hugely valuable platform for sharing our work and supporting the artists who are at the heart of it. Creating this connection with the global community of collectors and curators generates invaluable critical and financial support for our programmes, enabling artists to develop their research, take risks and make new work. All proceeds from the Atelier are shared between the artists and our future programme so we're excited to present works from previous exhibiting artists Alexandre da Cunha and Giles Round and to launch a new edition from our next exhibition by Nika Neelova.'

Iwona Blazwick, OBE, Director, Whitechapel Gallery says:

'The Whitechapel Gallery is proud to join with our peers in celebrating a decade of Allied Editions, made possible by the Frieze Art Fair. A platform for beautiful and urgent contemporary art created by artists to benefit public art spaces, Allied Editions offers a portal to philanthropic collecting. Marking a unique collaboration between artists and institutions, the public and private art worlds, the sheer range of works at affordable prices makes it possible for everyone to own a great work of art.'

Eva Langret, Artistic Director, Frieze London says:

'We are proud of our long-term collaboration with Allied Editions and delighted to be a part of their 10 year anniversary celebration. We know how important it is to continue to nurture Allied Editions' work and, through them, support the essential work of the leading not-for-profit organisations that are part of the collective. We are also delighted to welcome Brighton CCA as a new partner this year and to continue to expand the reach of the organisation beyond London. This year our work with Allied Editions will expand beyond the fair, as they will be one of the first organisations to exhibit at No.9 Cork Street, our new permanent hub for galleries. Allied will present a three-week pop-up, showcasing specially commissioned limited editions for sale by leading contemporary artists, which will be one of the highlights of our programme for the newly opened space.'

To request press information, images and interviews, please contact:

Laura Gosney, Press Officer at Serpentine, laurag@serpentinegalleries.org

To enquire about the editions, please contact:
editions@serpentinegalleries.org

VISITOR INFORMATION

Allied Editions at Frieze London, Stand B19

Regents Park

13 – 17 October 2021

13 October, 12 – 8pm – preview

14 – 17 October, 12 – 7pm

17 October, 12 – 6pm

Editions can also be purchased directly from the galleries:

Brighton CCA

Camden Art Centre

Chisenhale Gallery

Focal Point Gallery

Hepworth Wakefield

Institute of Contemporary Arts

Nottingham Contemporary

Serpentine

South London Gallery

Studio Voltaire

Whitechapel Gallery