

Use these cards to

Start a conversation
Draw a response
Write your thoughts
Make a swap
Create a pattern
Listen to yourself and others
Invent your own way to play
There are no wrong answers
Shuffle, swap, skip
Change it all

Why are some countries very rich while others remain poor?

You are in charge of government spending. Make next year's UK budget. You have one trillion pounds to spend.

In the year 2121, everyone has enough money to buy the things they need. Write a story about how we get there.

What do you value most?

It's 2071. Air, water and soil have been bought up by a big company.

Write a story to set them free.

Where does money come from?

What is the sound of money?

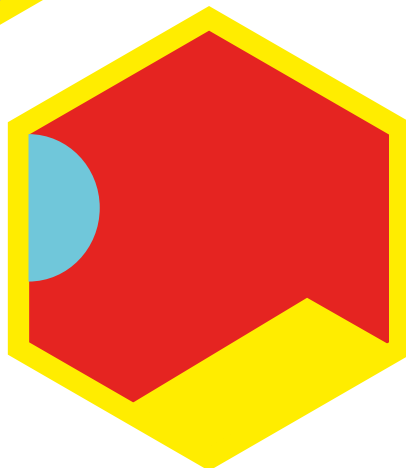

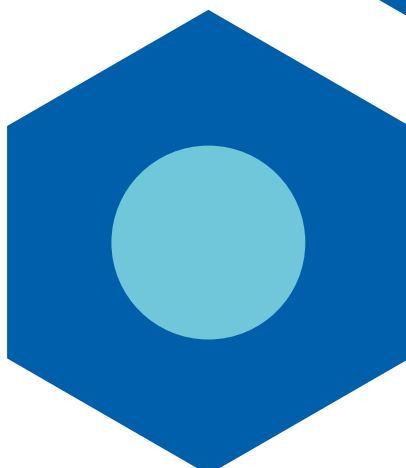

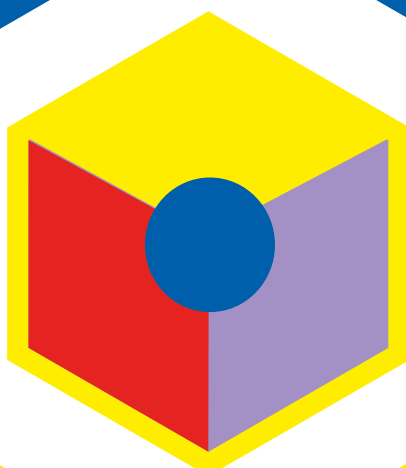

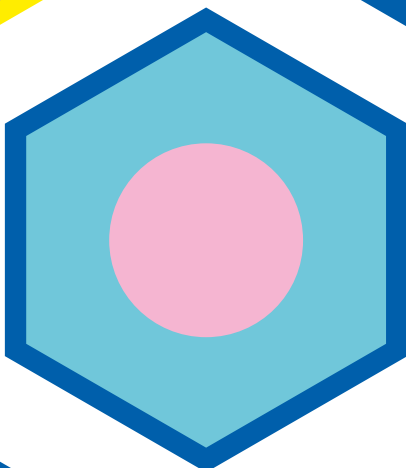

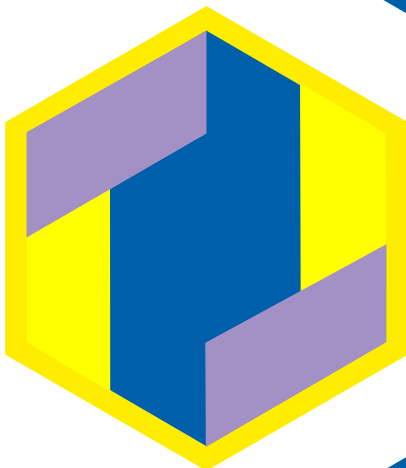

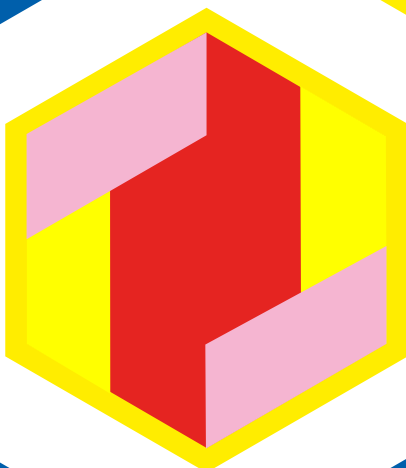

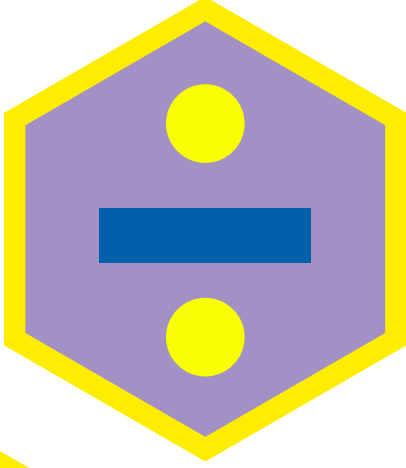

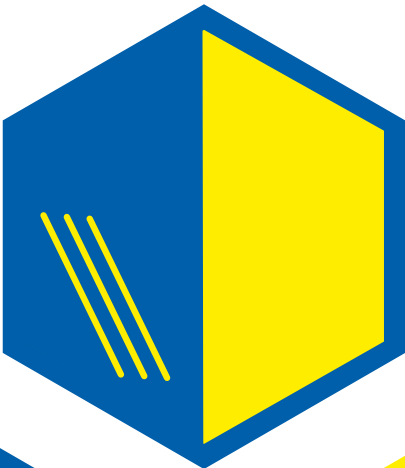

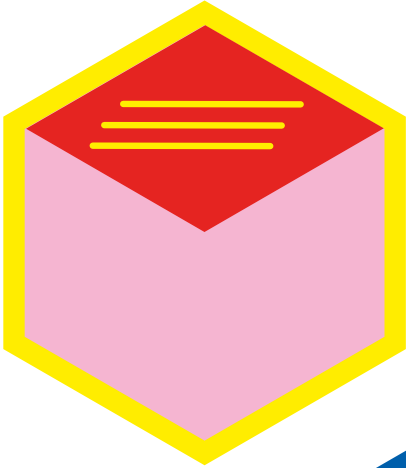

Is it ever OK to steal?

Surprise! You've been given one million pounds. How does it feel in your body? Draw the sensation.

What's the worst thing about money?

Free draw:
Abundance

Write a new slogan for the five pound note.

What would the world look like without money?

How is wealth shared across your neighbourhood?

How is wealth shared across the UK?

If money were a person, how would you describe them?

Draw or describe the first thing you remember buying.

Close your eyes. Imagine yourself with enough money to last your whole life. Describe how it feels.

Why are some people paid less than others?
Design a poster to support the fight for equal pay.

Draw around your hand.
Make it bling.

Write a poem:

D _____
E _____
B _____
T _____

Imagine a world where money and happiness aren't connected.

'More money, more problems'.

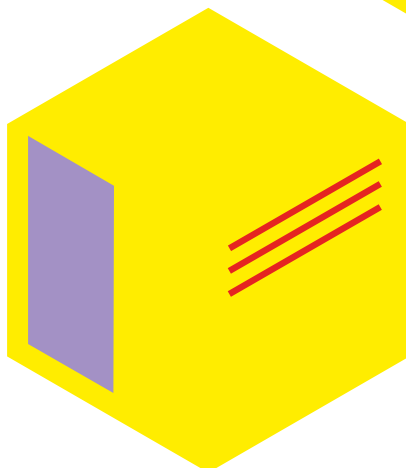

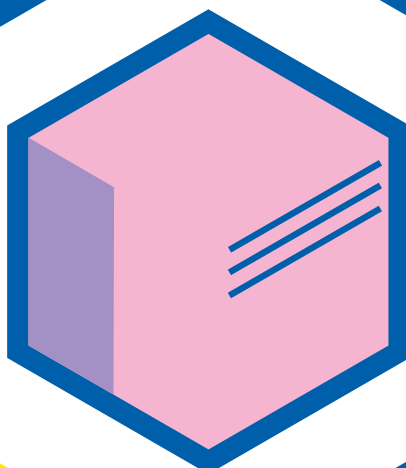

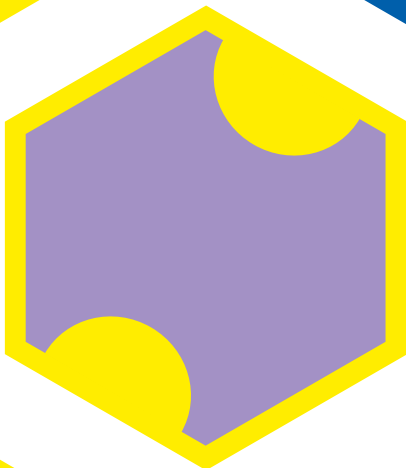

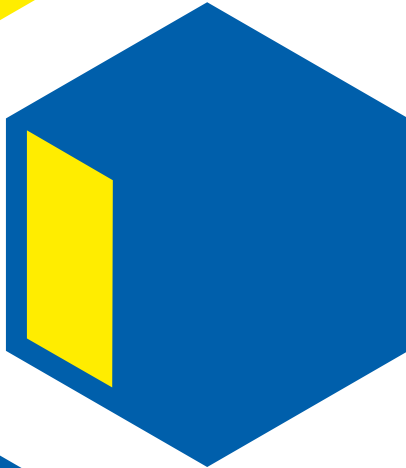

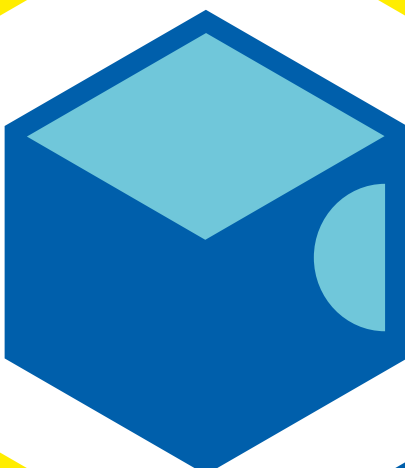

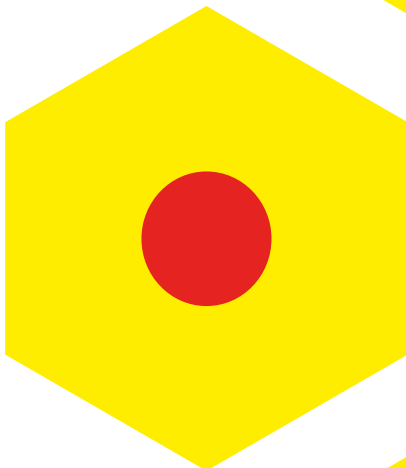

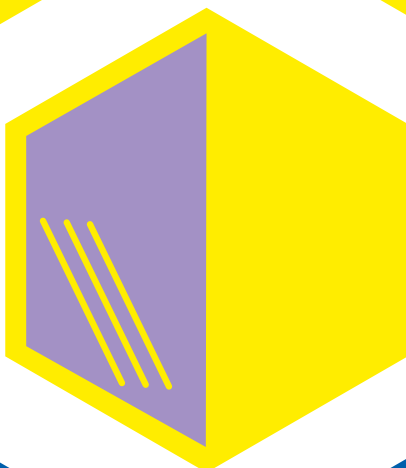

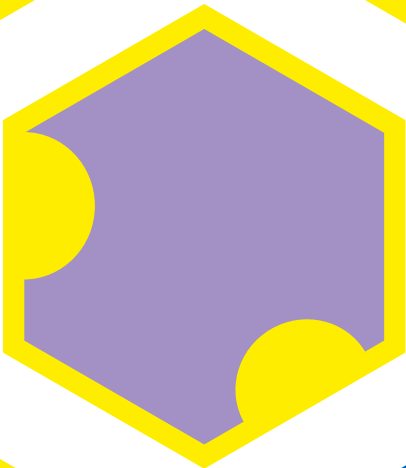

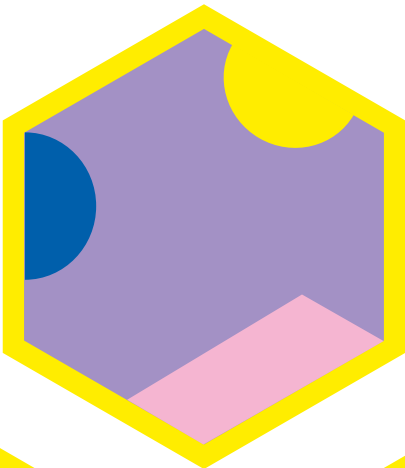

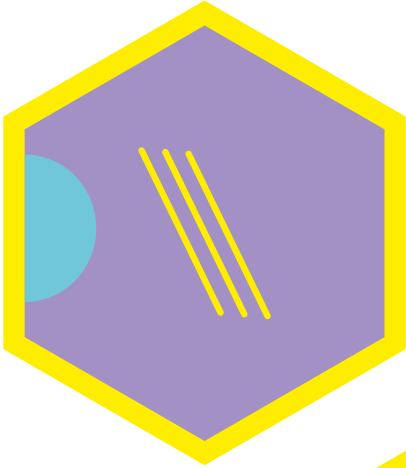

Discuss.

Money.

What are the first three words it makes you think of?

£1,000,000.
There are six zeros in one million.

How many millions make one billion?

Are hard work and money connected?

If you acknowledge an injustice, do you have a responsibility to do something about it?

What is No Recourse to Public Funds (NRPF)? Who does it affect and how? Write a letter to your MP to demand change.

Draw or describe your future job.

How much will you earn?

How do you feel when you walk past someone who's asking for money?

Describe the feeling.

Imagine: the government gives everyone a payment each week. How much should people get?

Elon Musk's net worth is estimated at £136 billion.

How would you share this money?

Have you ever inherited money? Do you expect to?

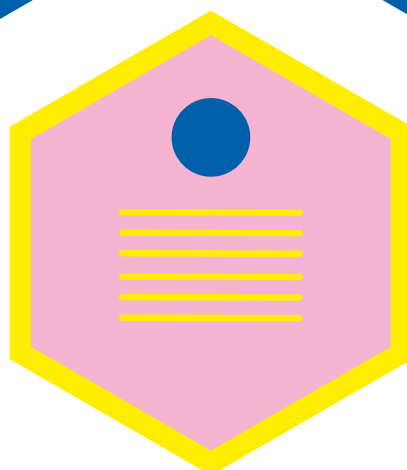

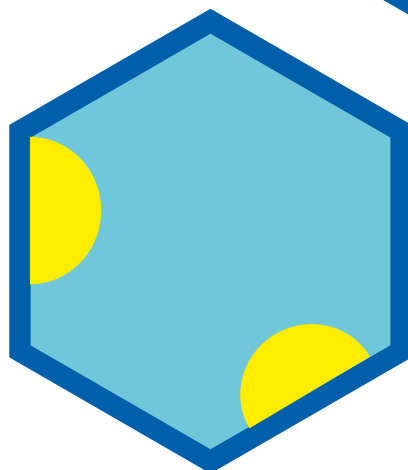

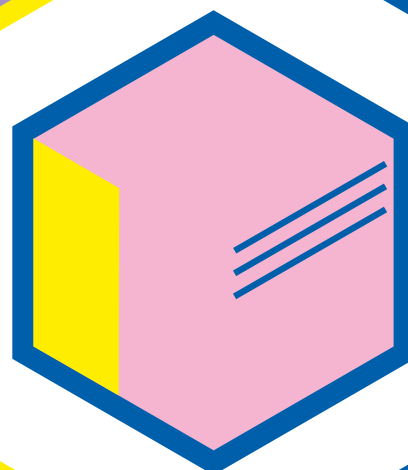

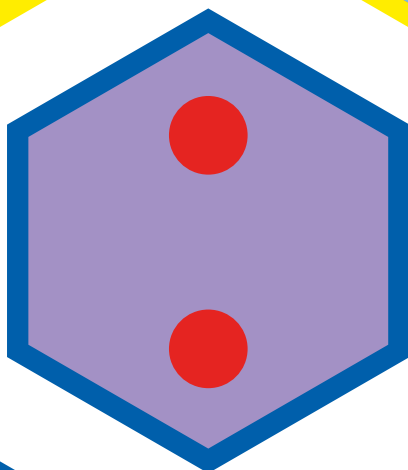

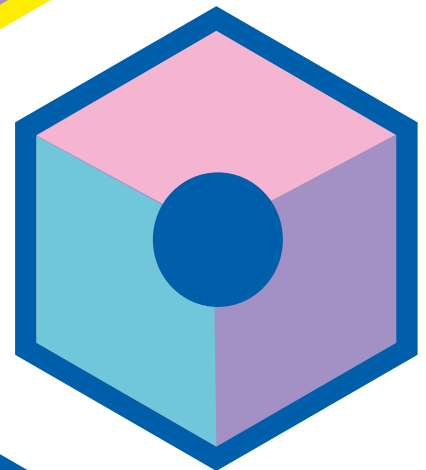

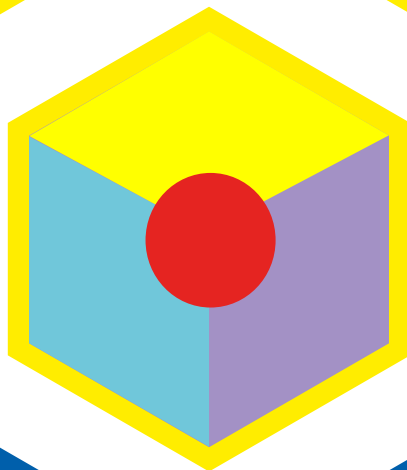

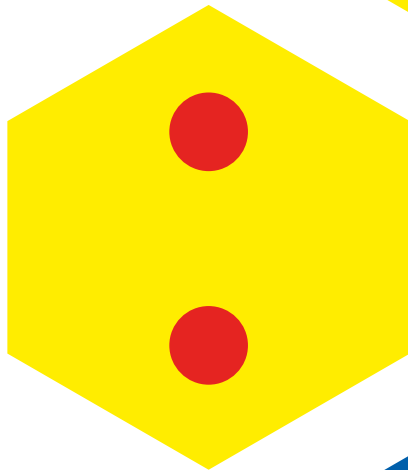

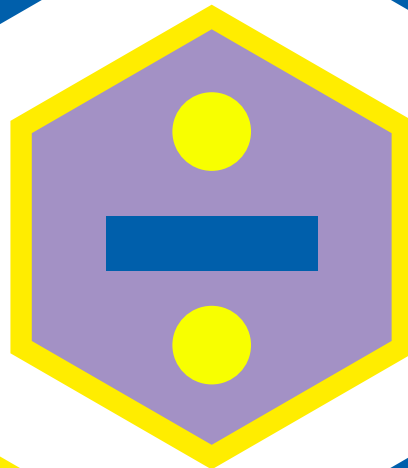

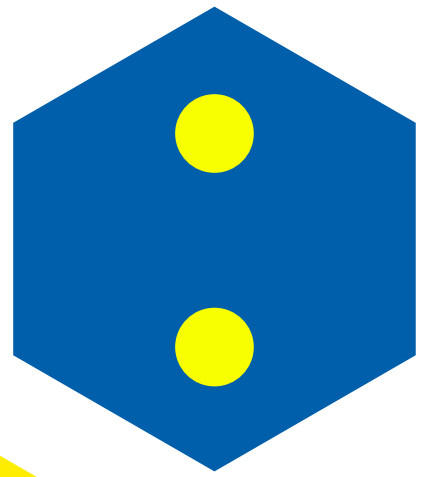

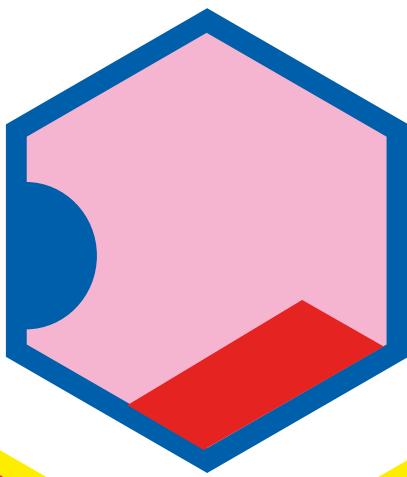

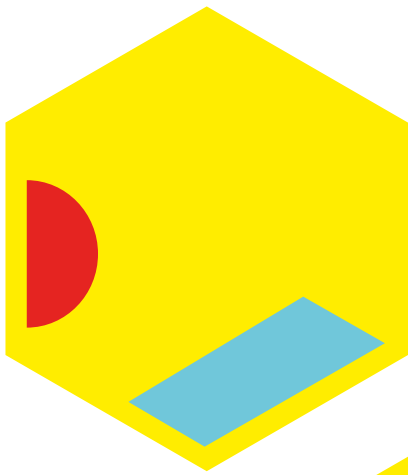

Invent a new symbol for money.

Have you ever found money? What did you do with it?

Why do things cost what they cost?

Imagine a city where everyone has enough.

Free draw:
Equality

The London Living Wage is £10.85 an hour. What can you buy with £10.85?

Design a new bank note. Put somebody you admire from your neighbourhood on it.

What is a bank?

Why do some people have more money than others?

Why is it difficult to talk about differences in wealth?

What is debt?

Draw or describe your future job.
How much will you earn?

Write a short story about Robin Hood in 2021.

Have you ever regretted buying something?
Draw this feeling.

Imagine a world where money and happiness aren't connected.

What is money?

What is class?

EDUCATION PAVILION SUPPORTED BY

Goldman Sachs

THERME GROUP

SUPPORTING EDUCATION SUPPORTED BY

Gilberts Point

SUPPORTING EDUCATION SUPPORTED BY

ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Bloomberg
Philanthropies

2021 ACTIVITY PACK DISTRIBUTION SUPPORTED BY

Westminster City Council &
Kensington and Chelsea Council
Young Six
The Young Westminster Foundation
Charitable Westminster and Kensington and Chelsea